

What do you think?

The Rockville Mayor and Council want to know!

Legislation is under consideration to include Rockville's homeowner and condominium associations in the Montgomery County Commission on Common Ownership Communities (CCOC). If adopted, association residents and boards of directors could use the CCOC's services and associations would be required to pay the CCOC's annual fee of $3.00 per unit.

CCOC services include: dispute resolution, educational programs and technical assistance, and regulation of community elections, budget adoption and enforcement procedures.

More information about the CCOC is available at:
